1# Călătoria fantastică a Maronei, Anca Damian. 2020

Călătoria fantastică a Maronei is one of the first Romanian feature film to be internationally displayed, and it is a great one! It tells the story of a dog who remembers her life before her accident, her different names and masters.

Her innocence and complete love together with the visual universe make this a touching and poetic movie.

1# Călătoria fantastică a Maronei, Anca Damian. 2020

The Fantastic Voyage of Marona (the English title) is directed by Anca Damian, the character designer is from Belgium, the compositor is French, the two chief decorators are from Norway and Italy, the music is from Spain and two studios from Romania worked on the animation.

It's the beauty of creating movies nowadays, we can do it from everywhere in the world!

1# Călătoria fantastică a Maronei, Anca Damian. 2020

Cute fact:

Anca Damian, the director of this movie, adopted a stray dog from a shelter, and created this movie for her.

2# La Famosa Invasione Degli Orsi In Sicilia, Lorenzo Mattotti. 2019

La Famosa Invasione Degli Orsi In Sicilia tells the story of when the bears met the humans. It beautifully shows the importance of staying true to yourself and close to nature.

2# La Famosa Invasione Degli Orsi In Sicilia, Lorenzo Mattotti. 2019

The first two teasers of this movie were very different, the team worked for a year in 3D but they ran out of budget and had to switch to 2D.

As Lorenzo had another vision for this movie, they tried to use the 2D differently, in the graphics, the animations and backgrounds.

3# Your Name, Makoto Shinkai. 2016

There's Mitsuha, a teenage girl from the country, and Taki, a teenage boy from Tokyo. They don't know each other, but one morning they swap bodies, family, city and all their life, basically.

The movie is their journey not only to get their life back, but also to find each other.

3# Your Name, Makoto Shinkai. 2016

Makoto Shinkai shows us a story of duality: rural/urban, traditional/modern, dream/reality, past/present, life/death.

The graphics are incredibly beautiful, the backgrounds and the lights really bring magic to this movie.

3# Your Name, Makoto Shinkai. 2016

Shinkai is very dedicated to his movies. For Your Name, he drew every single image of the storyboard and recorded his voice on top so he knew even before going to production how the movie should look like.
